A. Agenda

1. Mayor Schwabe started by introducing Rick Ailff, President of Clearwater Solutions, who gave council a brief synopsis of who he had brought in for the changeover process. Mayor Schwabe then informed council on the recent closeout process with Jacobs. He informed council that he had spoken with the president of Jacobs Company and what their conversations were. He also told council that no solution had been reached and the separation had taken place at midnight. He then informed council on what Jacobs had done in paying the present Jacobs employees a month worth of salary no to go to work for the city for a month. He also told council how Jacobs was offering each employee one weeks salary for every year they worked with Jacobs not to communicate with the city. He told council the employee that did not take the offer was Mark Harden. Mark would go to work for Clear Water immediately. Adm. Lawson told council he was there at midnight to received the keys from Don Dobson. He then inspected the facility and lab and found that Jacobs had removed everything. They all the records, filing cabinets, lab equipment, and all supplies.

Many comments were made by council but no changes were offered.
